2. plot intro
3. goblins
4. bandits

I) Intro scenes

a) Oberon and foster: Managing the restaurant

- 1) You make your way down some wooden stairs into the tree trunk
- 2) The Tree Trunk

(i) Vibe

- (a) The tree trunk is fully integrated with nature. Most people have found a symbiotic relationship with the life around them, however none go so far as Oberon. A great tree lives at the very center of Oberon and fosters home and shop. Moss covers every surface not in active use and ferns sprout wherever they please. Despite its status as a rather recent addition to the town of belgren, its become a hub that no one knew they needed, every night the place is packed with families enjoying a meal, friends having a drink, enemies settling scores. The levity and spirit from this place is practically tangible.

(ii) Layout

- (a) A spiral staircase works its way around the tree,
- (b) Bar wraps around

(iii) People

(a) Leana

- (1) Handles the bar and kinda keeps things in line, Oberon runs the kitchen she handles the restaurant floor, sometimes works as you sous chef

(b) Esmerala

(c) Will

- 3) Leana talks about some damage the newcomers did to the bar the night before

b) Bea

- 1) Bea is sitting in the wizards tower as they share a glass of whatever, books cover the walls and papers are piled high, this is way above the wizards pay grade, but he knows its powerful magic. What he can tell you is that you have to

c) Parker

- 1) Nadie has called parker in to speak about something. She has just found that her. admits that as the water lower she feels his connection with her goddess waning and festering.

2) Nadine

(i) Cleric of the water goddess Amani

(ii) she is a little bit jealous of parkers connection with his god

d) Adrienne

- 1) Speaking to

e) Dingus Khan

- 1) dingus is sitting on a chair much too small for even him. He has a small sculpture of a gnome, its face, to put it mildly, is not quite as it should be, he places it on the table in front of him next to a line of similar statues as well as a mound of broken marble and stone one could assume was once a number of statues. At dingus's sigh a small gnome takes his eyes from a masterpiece, a truly magnificent stone archway that contains stunning carvings and the word Berggren. He walks over to dingus and in kind words tells him that he is getting better, he points to a marker that says days since tantrum and exclaims at the progress he is making, and he tells dingus that he needs to work on the detail and move slower. These things take time and care.
- 2) Stones and statues
 - (i) Leo ba Blinky
 - (a) A small gnome with an extraordinary talent for sculpture
 - (b)

II) Everyone is called into the town square to discuss the theft

- b) Petting prepped
 - 1) Team outside of the meets in the blacksmiths
 - 2) Alex, Harry, Marcus meet at Marcus's home, they collect weapons and formulate a plan
 - (i) Character things
 - (a) None of them want anything, they are just acting out of fear and are trying to gain control of the situation,
 - (b) Alex: openly hateful
 - (1) WHY: doing this out of a deeply rooted fear of the goblins,
 - (2) NATURE: Violent, at the first challenge of authority
 - (3) BOND: Deeply connected to their children and their town, if they are convinced that they will lose a fight with the goblins they will stop
 - (4) Trait: Will do what they can to discredit and misunderstand you
 - (c) Marcus: wants to keep the town safe, believes the rumors
 - (1) WHY: Is the most capable of the bunch
 - (2) NATURE: Is not inherently hateful but is prepared to defend town and is highly susceptible to Alex's rhetoric
 - (3) BOND: Has a strong sense of integrity and morality, their mind can easily be swayed if they presented a morally favorable option, They fully believe that peace would be ideal
 - (d) Harry: is an enabler of Alex, is not going to be hateful but is not going to stop him from doing what he is doing (he should die)
 - (1) Doormat syndrome,
 - (2) Will stop talking if they get interrupted
 - (3) Will not challenge their husband
 - (e) Nadine
 - (1) Persistent, yet non violent
 - (2) Sees through most people's bullshit

(ii) Plans

- (a) Sneak into goblin town before summit and investigate
- (b) Wait until the summit confront them
- (c) Hide reinforcements in the trees
- (d) Break

(iii) Goblin town
